

Continuing the Journey of Justice & Healing for Missing & Murdered Aboriginal Women: Examining Parallels between the Australian & Canadian Context

Brenda Anderson
Women's & Gender Studies
Luther College
University of Regina

Wendee Kubik
Women's & Gender Studies
Brock University

The conference

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3bEJ9tEqo40>

Affinity groups

Missing Women's Conference 2008

Affinity Groups

Academic Affinity Group

Community Affinity Group

Faith Affinity Group

Family Affinity Group

Healing Affinity Group

Law/Policy Affinity Group

Youth Affinity Group

“more”

- More dialogue with Indigenous people
- More police involvement
- More stories
- More rallies and demonstrations
- More research
- More support for families
- More building of social justice coalitions
- More money and resources
- More education
- The media has to be held more accountable
- More challenging the government
- More collaborating with policy makers
- More men need to take more responsibility

Marchers gathered in Saskatoon to draw attention to the disproportionate number of missing and murdered aboriginal women in SK. Photograph by: R. Marjan, The StarPhoenix

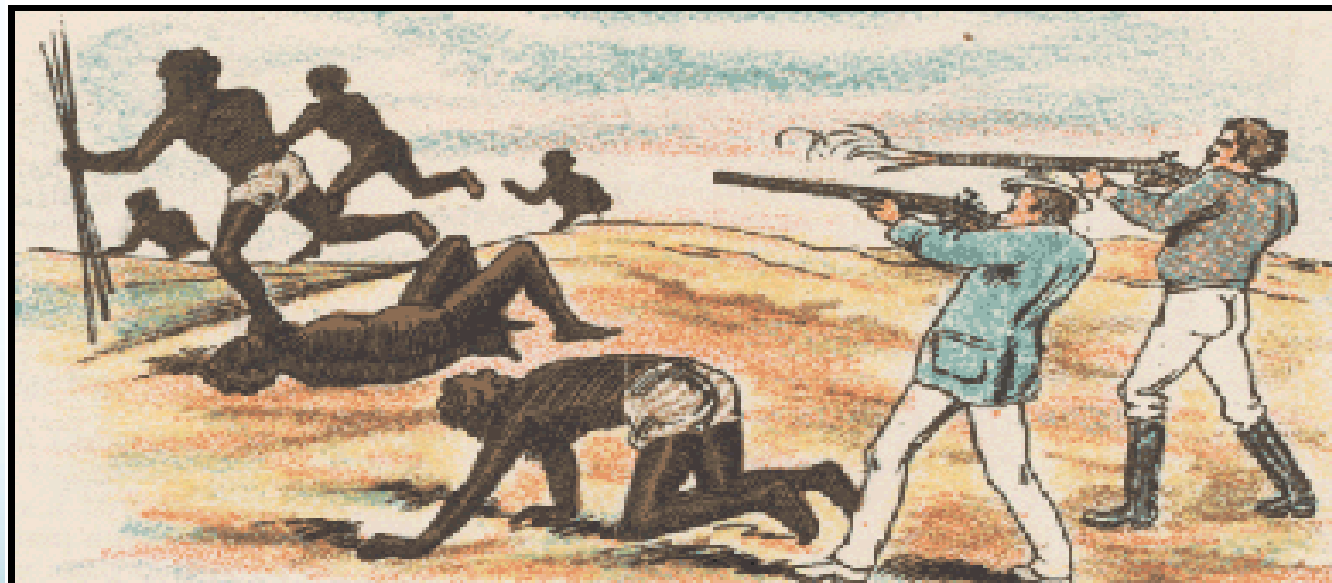

NWAC's Faceless Doll Project "Each statistic tells a story"

PARALLEL PATTERNS OF COLONIZATION IN AUSTRALIA AND ITS EFFECTS ON ABORIGINAL WOMEN:

The Erasure of Bodies, Spirit and Land

Terra Nullius: Land Belonging to Nobody

"... the revenge of the Whites, as they are hunted down and shot like dogs"

Lithographs by Alfred Scott Broad (1854-1929)

Reproduced by permission of the National Library of Australia

WHITE AUSTRALIA'S RELATIONSHIP WITH INDIGENOUS AUSTRALIA....

IN THE PAST.

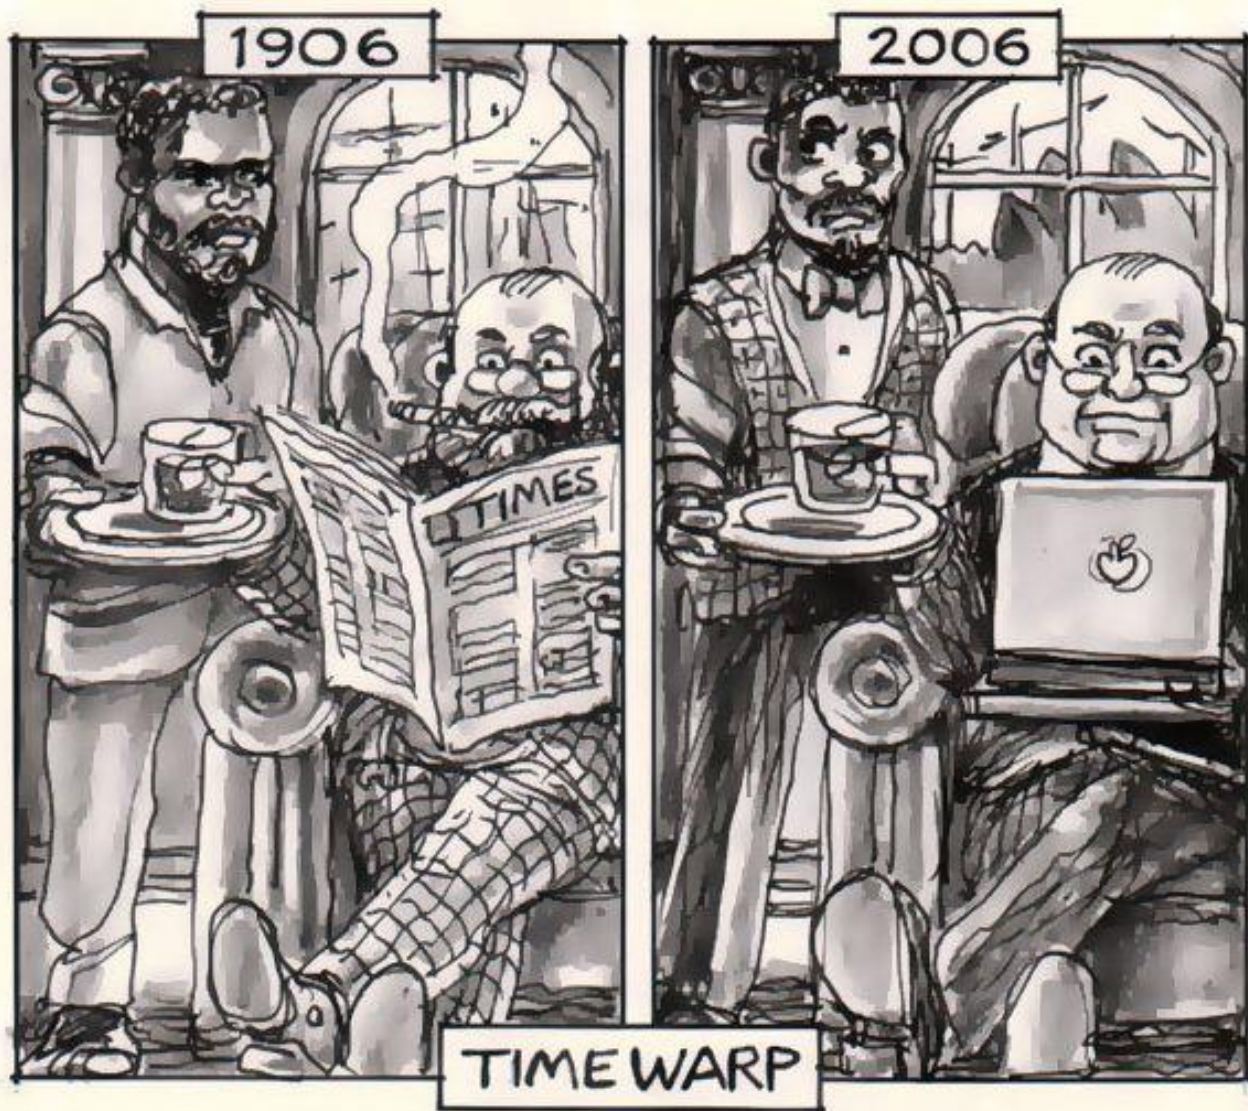

TODAY.

WIKINCT

Colin Russell, artist. White Australia has a black history. 1987. Screenprint on white paper. H90.95/30. La Trobe Picture Collection. Produced as part of an Artist-in-Residence programme, this poster was included in the exhibition Right Here Right Now – Australia 1988, held during the Fifteenth Biennial Adelaide Festival of Arts.

Sydney Action for Juarez

<http://www.raewynconnell.net/search/label/gender-based%20violence>

AND

<https://www.facebook.com/sydneyactionforjuarez>