

First Nations and Métis Research Engagement Day 2024

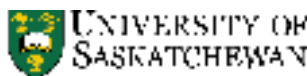

When: Friday, November 29th, 2024, 10:00 am - 4:30 pm

Where: First Nations University, 1 First Nations Way, Regina

What: Register for free to join us at this year's Research Engagement Day! Researchers, graduate students and community partners will be sharing Métis and First Nations health research projects supported by the nātawihowin and mamawiikikayaahk Research, Training and Mentorship Networks that make up the Saskatchewan NEIHR. Let's gather together to learn, share, and expand our horizons.
